Ms. Daniels indicated a change needed to be made to the Minutes. Ms. Daniels attended the January 23, 2023 meeting, just after roll call. Staff indicated they would make the change to the minutes. Mr. Quartel amended his motion. Motion carried unanimously.

PRESENTATIONS:

Mr. Beale Introduced Todd Gillingham from the Fredericksburg Regional Alliance. He gave an update on the FRA's work to receive a 501c3 status in order to move forward with the Regional Entrepreneurship Initiative (REI). The FRA is also working on private match funding. Mr. Ginger commented that the majority of the project is in place and once the 501c3 status is aquired, they can move forward. Mr. Quartel asked for a reminder of the program. Mr. Gillingham gave an overview of the REI, the Rivers Region

Entrepreneurship Council, and the private sector support. Mr. Gillingham took questions from the council and answered them accordingly.

Mr. Beale then introduced Jackie Davis from the Bay Consortium Workforce Development Board and Mason Bishop from WorkED Consulting. Mr. Bishop was selected through an RFP process as the consultant to conduct the TPI research with the BCWDP. Mr. Bishop gave a presentation on how they will conduct the TPI and stated they are just starting the work. His presentation include a timeline and method. Mr. Bishop took questions from the council and answered accordingly. Mr. Ginger gave an overview of TPI and potential future TPI funds to the council.

Mr. Beale introduced Troy Hartley and Sabine Rogers from Virginia Sea Grant. Mr. Hartley gave an update on the Coastal Resilience and Adaptation Economy Project. Mr. Hartley presented on the work that the project has conducted thus far. Three of the RISE challenge winners spoke about the research and work their companies are doing in the coastal resiliency space, and how the collaboration between companies has been beneficial. The companies and speakers were Leonard Nelson from Natrx, Russ Burke from Biogenic Solutions Consulting, and Tate Rogers from Triangle Environmental Health Initiative. Mr. Hartley and the business winners took questions from the council and answered accordingly.

NEW BUSINESS

Nominating Committee Report

Ms. McClellan gave a report of the Nominating Committee meeting earlier in the day. She indicated that the following nominations were being brought to the council:

- Re-elect Jackie Davis to the Regional Council
- Elect Joel Griffin, Jackie Davis, & Jeff Szyperski to the Executive Committee
- Elect Taryn Brice-Rowland (Rogue Oysters – Northern Neck) & Lindsey Watson (REC – PD16) to the Regional Council

Ms. McClellan made a motion to the council to approve all the appointments from the Nominating Committee. Motion was seconded. Motion carried unanimously.

Ms. McClellan thanked Lisa Hull and Morgan Quicke for serving on the Executive Committee for the last two years. She also tasked the Council with coming up with one person to recommend to the Nominating Committee by the next meeting in July.

Mr. Ginger then asked Lindsey Watson and Taryn Brice Rowland to introduce themselves as the newest members of the Regional Council. Mr. Beale also thanked Kim McClellan and Lisa Hull for serving on the Executive Committee.

Application Discussion and Determination – Stafford County EDA Smart Technology Discovery ECB

Mr. Ginger gave a brief introduction of the project and the prior work that had been done. Dale Herndon presented the project application which included discovery sessions in order to identify the need in rural localities to expand the Virginia Smart Community Testbed. John Holden also spoke about the success of the Testbed in Stafford, VA and how this project would expand the opportunity to the rural communities. The project will include 3 discovery meetings to identify problems and possible entrepreneurs that could operate through the testbed in local communities to solve problems. Project planning meetings and a planning report will be at the end of the project. Mr. Holden also discussed partnership with RIoT, the Testbed, VIPC, and the FRA.

Mr. Herndon and Mr. Holden took questions from the Council and the Council discussed the application. Mr. Beale asked for a Motion for approval. Mr. Quartel motioned for approval and Mr. Anzivino seconded. Mr. Griffin indicated he would need to abstain due to conflict. The motion carried unanimously with one abstention.

INFORMATION ITEMS IN PACKET

Mr. Beale asked Mr. Ginger regarding the budget and confirming that there were sufficient funds on hand to pay staff for a short period of time if the budget is not approved by Richmond by the end of June. Mr. Ginger confirmed.

Mr. Ginger informed the council that the Growth and Diversification plan is due to be updated in 2023 and that staff would like to hold a council retreat with a consultant to get council members more involved and update the plan.

Mr. Ginger also updated the council on the two new implementation projects approved at the March 2023 GO Virginia State Board meeting. Mr. Ginger went through current projects and indicated all were in good standing and updated the council on the current project pipeline.

ADJOURNMENT

Being no further business, Mr. Beale adjourned the meeting at 12:05 pm.
